

Nicole Phillippe Joins The Literacy Alliance as Volunteer Coordinator

Tuesday, April 20, 2021 – Fort Wayne, IN – The Literacy Alliance is excited to announce Nicole Phillippe has joined the TLA team as the volunteer coordinator. Nicole’s skills, combined with her passion for helping others made her the perfect candidate for the position. Nicole has a bachelor of arts in early childhood education from Western Governors University and many years of experience working with children and families as a caseworker and educator.

Melinda Haines, The Literacy Alliance’s CEO said, “We are looking forward to utilizing Nicole’s extensive organizational and training skills to build a volunteer base that will complement our staff’s work in empowering adults to reach their goals.”
