Allen 21st Century Scholars by cutoff

Students in the 21st Century Scholars program for the Allen County Schools program.

Allen County Schools announced the 21st Century Scholars program for the 2021-22 school year. The program allows students to earn college credit while still in high school. The program has provided up to $10,000 of scholarship money to students and has the ability to increase the amount of scholarship money and cover fees.

To qualify, students must apply during their senior year. The program also allows for the student to earn up to $10,000 in scholarship money and up to 12 college credits. The program is available to students who are currently in high school or who have graduated from high school.

Students who do not apply for the program will apply at their school's enrollment office.

Literacy Alliance acquires READS

The board of directors of The Literacy Alliance announce its acquisition Thursday of Project READS from the Allen County Education Partnership, effective Sept. 1.

The Allen County Education Partnership board of directors voted Wednesday to dissolve the organization and give all programs and assets to The Literacy Alliance.

Its board of directors voted Thursday to accept Project READS' program assets with a good-faith commitment to continue its mission to help Allen County students in grades 1-3 achieve grade level reading.

Corey Porter, chair of The Literacy Alliance's board, said "The Literacy Alliance welcomes this opportunity to take on a new program that will help us fulfill our mission of eliminating illiteracy in our community. It is an exciting time for us to consider adding or expanding programs that will help us become a literacy group for all ages."
